Regatta at Pittsburg-Important Law Suit-General Grant PITTEBURG, Sept. 30 .- The long talked of regatta came off this afternoon. An immense crowd of people assembled along the wharf and on steamboats to witness the exciting scene. One of the oarsmen of Xanthe broke an oar at the York and Friendship. The New York, ahead part of the distance, lost ground in rounding the stake-boat. The Friendship came in two lengths abead. A large amount changed hands on the result, the edds being in favor of the Pittsburg boat. Time of the winning boat, 32:26; distance.

An important suit has been brought here in the United States Circuit Court against Prother & Duncan, Pit Hole City. The suit is to enforce the contract of sale of the celebrated Homeden farm, on Pite Hole creek, on which are located the great flowing wells of Pit Hole; also the city of Pit Hele. The value of property involved is estimated at four or five millions. The complainants allege that the written contract of sale was for $1,300,000, and that the farm so greatly increased in value that Prother & Duncan refuse o earry out the contract.

General Grant accepts the invitation of the Mayor to visit Pittsburg. He will come on the 4th of October.
